Applicant Tattoo Information

Officers are not to have any visible tattoo(s) while on-duty in a regulation uniform. No visible tattoos above a collar or exposed by the short sleeve uniform shirt. The department does not grant any waivers and does not allow any "skin sleeves or covers" to hide them. This includes tattoos that can be covered by watches and wedding bands.

Tattoos, Brands and Body Modifications

- Applicants who have tattoo(s), brand(s) or body modification(s) on any portion of their body that is visible while wearing a short sleeve uniform shirt who expresses a willingness to remove the tattoo regardless of the location or quantity, will be allowed to continue in the process until the point of Chief's selection.
- During the written and physical fitness testing, all applicants will be visually inspected wearing shorts and a short sleeve shirt to identify any tattoos, brands and body modifications.
- Prior to being permitted to participate in the Chief's selection all applicants must demonstrate compliance with the requirements of General Order 73-5/S as it pertains to any tattoos, brands and body modifications.
