Commander Roger Holland, Div. of Police, stated that Officer Daniel Day had committed the offense of Unsatisfactory Performance in violation of KRS 95.450 and General Order 73-02/I, Section 1.11, in that on the 13th and 16th days of March, 2015 he appears to have not performed his patrol duties and responsibilities to conform to work standards established for the position of Patrol Officer. Officer Day needlessly delayed his time spent on several calls within a seven day period that were documented and investigated thus far. On Friday, March 13, 2015 at 1105 hours, Officer Day was dispatched to Victoria Way for a harassment reported, failed to advised Dispatch he was 10-97, and was marked out on this call for two hours before being prompted for a final code. On March 13, 2015 at 1433 hour, Officer Day was dispatched to Greenbriar Road for an “EC” assist. Officer Day responded to the call and left the scene without providing a disposition code to Dispatch. When Officer Day was checked, he then immediately coded out the call with Code 3. On March 16, 2015 at 1053 hours, Officer Day was dispatched to an injury collision on New Circle Road with another officer. Officer Day did not arrive at the scene for his call. A supervisor observed Officer Day still marked out on the MDC for the injury collision. A subsequent status check was completed by the dispatcher and Officer Day responded with a Code 3. On March 16, 2015 at 1204 hours, Officer Day responded to Vancouver for a motor vehicle complaint. The dispatcher completed a status check for Officer Day while Officer Day’s cruiser was parked at his residence and he was not in the car. Officer Day provided a “Code 5” when status checked at 1258 hours. Officer Day appears to not have performed his police duties in an acceptable manner. Officer Day is expected to properly perform the duties of a patrol officer in handling calls according to the Lexington Police Department’s policy and procedures which require officer to maintain the highest standard of efficiency in carrying out the functions and objective of the agency and the appropriate punishment for this offense is Forty (40) Hours (One Work Week) Suspension Without Pay.

Ms. Akers asked questions about the police violation. Commander Holland responded.

Upon motion of Mr. F. Brown, seconded by Ms. Henson, the disciplinary action was approved by unanimous vote.
