TITLE VI PROGRAM POLICY

It is the policy of the Lexington Police Department to uphold and ensure full compliance with the non-discrimination requirements of Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and related non-discrimination authorities.

These authorities require that no person in the United States of America be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or otherwise be subjected to discrimination under any program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, age, disability, income level, or limited English proficiency.

QUESTIONS?

If you have any questions regarding the Department's compliance with Title VI program requirements, or feel you have been discriminated against in the administration of any Lexington Police Department program, please contact one of the following:
