3. Now we will do a walkthrough of the application and all the information that is needed to complete it. Remember you can always save and finish your application later until the deadline date. Just select “Save as Draft” at the top of each screen beside the “Next” button.

   a. Section one of the application is the “Start” section. You will read the statement and then click on the “Terms and Conditions”. If after reading these, you are in agreement with the statements, you will click the box beside “I agree to the Terms and Conditions”. Then click the “Next” button at the top of the page in the right hand corner.

   b. Section two is to attach a resume to the application. You can either choose a previous resume that you have uploaded by selecting, “Use Existing Resume” or upload a new resume by selecting, “Attach Resume”. Important a resume does not replace any information that is needed within the application. You can attach a resume, but you will have to fill in all details from the resume to the application for it to be officially counted as experience towards the position. You do not need to attach a resume either. It is optional.
c. Section three is Preferences. There are 10 questions that ask what you are looking for as far as time, location, and traveling within the position. You will answer all questions and select "Next" to go to the next section.
d. Section four is Education and Work Experience. This is the section that you will need to be very detailed and thorough. Any experience, education, job training, certificates/licenses, or language skills that you may have need to go in this section. By providing details on all responsibilities held within each position, you allow yourself more opportunity to get reimbursed for your experience. The “Add Attachment” button is to upload your diplomas, certificates, licenses, etc. that will help prove that you do have the education and experience that you are listing below. Everything in this section allows you to meet the minimum qualifications of the position plus will be used to calculate your hourly pay, if offered the position. To add a new “Work Experience”, “School Education”, or “Degrees”, you will select the “+” that is located below each title of the section. Once all information is filled in, select “Next” to move on to the next section. Reminder your resume will not be considered when calculating education, experience, or later down the road, pay.
Section five is the Questionnaire. You will be required to answer all questions on this screen. Read each question carefully, and follow the directions on the question(s) that are open ended. Once you have properly answered all questions, select “Next” to move on.
f. Section six is Applicant References. This is where you will list the previous bosses, supervisors, or co-workers that you have had that can speak on your ability to perform the position that you are applying for. Click on the “+” below references to add each reference. You can list personal references here, but we will want at least two professional references as well. Once you have fill in your references, you will select “Next” to move on.

g. Section seven is Self-Identity. You will be asked about your military background, gender, and ethnic group in the next two pages. If you would like to have military preference, select “I qualify for Military Preferences” and before submitting your application, return to the “Education and Work Experience” section and add your DD-214 by using the “Add Attachment” button. This gives you preference when it comes time for interviews. If you don’t qualify, select “I am not requesting Military Preference or cannot otherwise provide a copy of the DD-214”.

Reasonable Accommodations Notice
If you are a disabled veteran, it would assist us if you tell us whether there are accommodations we could make that would enable you to perform the essential functions of the job, including special equipment, changes in the physical layout of the job, changes in the way the job is performed, provision of personal assistance services or other accommodations. This information will assist us in making reasonable accommodations for your disability.
Submission of this information is voluntary and does not provide you any adverse treatment. The information will be used only in ways that are consistent with the Americans with Disabilities Act.
Please contact the Division of Human Resources at (859) 250-3030 to request accommodations.
Once this is completed, you will select “Next” and this page will ask for your gender and ethnic group. You can choose to fill these in or you can choose to decline to answer. How you answer these questions will have no impact on the hiring process.

Section eight is the final section. This is where you will review all sections and, if needed, go back and make changes to your application. Once you feel confident that you have completed your application, you will select “Submit”. The application will then be sent to the HR Generalist that is in charge of finding an employee for the position. Once the job has closed, you can then contact Human Resource to see what is going on within the hiring process. If you decide that you no longer want the position, you can always withdraw your application by going to the “My Job Application” tab on the Careers Homepage and selecting “Withdraw” by the correct position name.
