

WORK-LEXINGTON

LEXINGTON WORKFORCE RESOURCE CENTER

On-site assistance with job applications and resumes • Job connections and job placement • Program referrals

Awesome Inc

348 E Main St, Lexington, KY 40507

awesomeinc.org/salesforce

The Salesforce Career Accelerator prepares residents for an exciting tech career working with the world's top customer relationship management platform. Work together with our team and fellow learners to earn your first Salesforce Certification and learn key tech career skills from home in a part-time, 20-week course.

Nick Such | Director of Awesome Inc. U

859.472.4219 | nick@awesomeinc.org

Building Institute of Central Kentucky

109 W Loudon Ave, Lexington, KY 40508

buildinginstituteky.com

Provides classroom, lab training and licensure for HVAC, plumbing and electric.

Bruce Maybriar | 859.229.6641

bruce@biacentralky.com

Bluegrass Community & Technical College (Bluegrass Workforce Scholars Program, Weekend Employment Readiness for Kentucky, Manufacturing Operator Certificate)

164 Opportunity Way Lexington, KY 40511

bluegrass.kctcs.edu/education-training/werk-program.aspx
bluegrass.kctcs.edu/workforce-solutions/wf-scholars-program.aspx
bluegrass.kctcs.edu/workforce-solutions/customized-training.aspx

The Bluegrass Workforce Scholars Program, WERK Program, and Machine Operator program provides training for individuals to gain the skills necessary to begin a career in a high-demand field in 12 months or less. Program guidelines may apply for grant-funded programs. Most programs fully cover tuition, books and supplies, personal and career counseling, job readiness preparation, and support services

Micah Crawford | 859.246.6314

micah.crawford@kctcs.edu

Carl D. Perkins Job Corps/Insights Training Group, LLC Outreach & Admissions/Career Transition Services

1218 S Broadway, Suite 210 A, Lexington, KY 40504

jobcorps.gov/recruiting/enrollment-interest

The Job Corps Program provides free educational, career, and technical training for individuals ages 16 to 24 (or older with a documented disability) who are income-eligible. The program is residential and provides services to students from the time of the admissions process all the way through after graduation with career transition services.

Dennis Smith | Admissions Counselor

606.339.6835 | 800.733.JOBS (5627)

Community Action Council

701 W. High St. Lexington, KY 40508

commaction.org

Prepares residents to earn a Commercial Drivers Licensing (CDL). Program is free of charge and is offered multiple times per year. Clients must meet income guidelines. CDL Permit and Licensing fees are covered. Program duration is usually between four – eight weeks, based on the client's pace or needs.

Joshua McCann | 859.233.4600

joshua.mccann@commaction.org

FoodChain

501 W. Sixth St., Suite 105 Lexington, KY 40508

commaction.org

Provides food sector job training to residents through a virtual platform and hands-on experience working with local foods. All graduates obtain their Food Managers License and are given a chef uniform, a knife kit and a financial stipend. The program is free of charge. Clients must meet income guidelines. The program duration is eight weeks.

Jubilee Jobs of Lexington

1450 N Broadway, Lexington, KY 40505

jubileejobsoflexington.org 859.977.0135

Prepares for job readiness and job placement with resumes, mock interviews, workshops, and mentoring.

Kentucky Career Center (KCC) - Bluegrass

1128 Winchester Rd, Lexington, KY 40505

ckycareers.com/career 859.267.2223

Job seekers can be matched with an employer, receive one-on-one assistance to create a resume, practice interview skills, learn about their transferable skills and more. If a job seeker needs to improve their skills to gain suitable employment, training assistance may also be provided in a high-demand field, such as: childcare and education, construction, healthcare, information technology, manufacturing, or transportation, distribution and Logistics. On-the-job training and work-based-learning opportunities are also available!

Lexington Rescue Mission

444 Glen Arvin Ave, Lexington, KY 40508

lexingtonrescue.org/services 859.381.9600

Provides Jobs for Life program that provides soft skills training, job search, resume writing, and job placement.

Opportunity for Work & Learning (O.W.L)

650 Kennedy Road, Lexington, KY 40511

owlinc.net 859.254.0576 ext. 227

OWL, Inc provides vocational assessments, education, skills development, work adjustment, placement and supported employment services for those who need assistance in obtaining and maintaining employment. OWL also provides opportunities to obtain certifications in Forklift and Customer Service Representation. OWL serves populations deemed eligible through the Office of Vocational Rehabilitation and/or the Cabinet for Health and Family services who include, but are not limited to, those with disabilities, justice involved, in recovery, receiving SNAP benefits, etc. The Lexington Manufacturing Center (LMC), a subsidiary of OWL, Inc., offers employment opportunities in manufacturing production and logistics.

United Way of the Bluegrass

540 East Third Street, Room 202, Lexington, KY 40508

waypointlex.com 859.977.7383 anna.kenion@uwbg.org

WayPoint Centers serve as a neighborhood resource to support family financial success and stability, using bundled social services in partnership with community agencies.

University of Kentucky (RETAIN Kentucky)

121 Mineral Industries Building, 120 Graham Avenue, Lexington, Kentucky 40506

kyretain.org 859.526.3251 retain@uky.edu

University of Kentucky (RETAIN Kentucky) is a federally funded program implemented by the University of Kentucky to provide return-to-work/stay-at-work case management services and supports to eligible people who have a non-work related injury or illness that prevents them from doing their job.

Urban League of Lexington

148 Deweese St., Lexington, KY 40507

ullex.org/programs/jobs 859.233.1561

The League provides introductory computer skills including computer basics, Microsoft Word, fiber optics and cabling. Resume building, career assessments, mock interviews and job search assistance are also provided. Register at ultech2021.eventbrite.com

Leandra Forman | 859.428.8380
leandra@foodchainlex.org

JUBILEE
JOBS

